

A Listing of Recently Published Books

Dynid author
GENERAL David Phillip

Everything in its Path, by Kal T. Erickson (Simon and Schuster, $8.95). Destruction in the Buffalo Creek flood.

Going Nuts in Brazil with Jack Douglas, by Jack Douglas (Putnam, $7.95). Comic continues search for the "perfect" place to live.

Horse of the Year: The story of a unique horse show, by Dorian Williams (St. Martin's, $8.95).

More Morgan: A Pictorial History of the Morgan Sports Car, by Gregory Houston Bowden ($12.95).

Power on Ice, by Denis Potvin and Stan Fischler (Harper & Row, $9.95). New York Islander defenseman tells of his career and rise in the National Hockey League.

Speak For England, by Melvin Bragg (Knopf, $15). An oral history of England 1900-1975, based on interviews with inhabitants of Wigton, Cumberland.

The Hebrew Kings, by Joan Comay (Morrow, $8.95). Four centuries of biblical history.

The Legacy of Malthus, by Alan Chase (Knopf, $17.95). The social costs of the new scientific racism.

The Night Watch (Atheneum, $9.95). Former CIA man tells of assignments around the world where he served as a "contract man."

The Overseas Targets: War Report of the OSS Volume II, with a new introduction by Kermit Roosevelt (Walker, $12.95)

Accounts of heroic and intriguing adventures of the OSS during World War II

The Splendour of Scotland, by H. V. Morton (Dodd Mead, $12.50). Text and color photos explore the Highlands.

Tobias Smollett: A study in Style, by Damian Grant (Rowman and Littlefield, $19.50). Study of works of English writer.

FICTION & POETRY

Ballon Girl, by May Mackintosh (St. Martin's, $7.95). Rome, art dealers and romance.

Herman Sam, by Paul King (Coward, McCann & Gehegan, $8.95). Young nun and Indian in love story in the West of the 1870's.

Marie Laveau, by Francine Prose (Putnam, $8.95). Love story set amidst voodoo rituals in 19th-century New Orleans.

Millions of Strange Shadows: Poems by Anthony Hecht (Atheneum, $7.95). Collection of poems by Pulitzer prize-winning poet.